(b) if so, details thereof;

(c) whether Government propose to draw attention of Pakistan's Government towards such statements emphasising bilateral solution to 'Kashmir Issue'; and

(d) if so, details thereof and if not, reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI R. L. BHATIA): (a) and (b) Government have seen media reports to the effect that the US Ambassador to India, in a reply to a question after his address on "The United States and India: Looking Ahead", at the Meridian International Centre, Washington on December 1, 1994, stated that the parties on the Indian subcontinent had been talking to each other in various ways, and that perhaps was the best way to settle the differences.

(c) and (d) Government's consistent position remains unchanged, i.e., that under the Simla Agreement all differences with Pakistan are to be resolved bilaterally and there can be no scope for any outside or third party involvement of any sort. This has been conveyed to Pakistan on several occasions and at various levels.

India and Pakistan support the move sponsored by Non-aligned Countries

2228. SHRI RAMDAS AGARWAL: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the news-item published in 'The Hindustan Times' of 6th December, 1994 captioned "Pakistan admits taking missiles from China";

(b) if so, the details thereof indicating whether Government of India are aware of the reported details of the defence co-operation which is going on between Pakistan and China;

(c) whether Pakistan is also purchasing a second nuclear power plant from China in addition to the one Centre already supplied by China;

(d) if so, what is the reaction of Government of India thereto; and

(e) whether Government are contemplating to make sufficient and adequate defence preparedness in all spheres to counter Pakistan?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI R. L. BHATIA): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) Government are aware of the extensive defence cooperation between Pakistan and China, including transfer of sophisticated missiles and technology.

(c) Government have seen reports of Pakistan President's press conference in Beijing on December 5, 1994 in which he expressed an interest in procuring a second nuclear power plant from China.

(d) and (e) Government are aware that Pakistan has a clandestine weapon-oriented nuclear programme.

Government constantly monitor all developments having a bearing on national security and take necessary measures to safeguard it.

Banking Co-operation between India and China

2229. SHRIMATI VEENA VERMA: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether an agreement for establishment of direct banking links and a memorandum of understanding of issuance of multi point entry visas were signed between India and China during the recent visit of the Vice President of India to China; and

(b) if so, the details thereof and other agreements if any singed during the visit?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI R. L. BHATIA): (a) Two memoranda of understanding, on banking co-operation and simplification of visa procedures were signed during the Vice President's visit to China, October 21—28 1994.
